

Chapter Ten

1. Vocabulary: Fun

Angeline enjoys sharing the fun of the religious outings.

Using some of the words below (or others from this chapter) create a sign to announce the details of the celebration and encourage people to attend:

festivities celebration enticing invitation musicians revelry minstrels storytellers.

2. A New Friend

Ibrahim is such a good listener Angeline tells him her sad tale. “It was almost as if in telling she had been able to rid herself of a heavy, heavy burden.”

- a) Why do you think Angeline chose to confide in Ibrahim and not in Zahra?
- b) Tell about a time in your own life when sharing your troubles helped.

3. Food fit for a Feast

Angeline came to enjoy the Egyptian food.

- a) A Potluck Feast: organize a class luncheon to be made up of foods from this chapter. OR
- b) Create an elaborate menu for the Emir to choose his meal from after fasting for Ramadan.

4. An Egyptian Excursion

You are a travel agent trying to sell tickets for joining the Emir’s entourage. From information in this chapter create a trip brochure with words and pictures.

5. A Book of Prayer

Before their feast Zahra said the Muslim prayer, “Bismillah ar-Rahman ar-Raheem.” Which translates to “In the name of God the merciful, the Mercy-Giving.”

- a) As a class you will create a Book of Prayer.
- b) Each student will contribute one prayer.
- c) Make a class planning chart to organize the prayer each person will contribute, to make sure many different religions are represented.
