

Chapter Fourteen

1. Vocabulary: The Actions of Emotions

A character's feelings may show up in their facial expressions, body language and tone of voice.

Locate and record examples: (e.g: bit her lip'.)
Angeline (4), Zahra (2), Stephan (2), Heba (2)

2. Advice Columnist

You are the Egyptian Ann Landers. How would you answer Angeline's question: "But what of Stephen? Do I really want my liberty so badly that I would leave him?"

3. Character Catchup

In your journal, record new information. Focus on personal and situation changes. Add your impression of them at this point in the story.

4. The Emir Interview: Point of View

A Diary Entry or Interview Notes

As Angeline, write down your most secret questions and fears about the interview. OR
As the Emir, record your impressions, plans and thoughts as a followup to the interview.
(Include one quote from each).