

Chapter Two

1. Vocabulary: The Verbs of Slavery

Karleen Bradford chose verbs that will help her readers see word pictures and feel what her characters are feeling. Use five of these verbs in sentences about slaves and masters:

tethered chastised deserted outraged doomed simmered escape.

2. The Blame Game

Like Angeline we have all blamed someone when things go wrong for us.

Beginning with "... the anger that simmered within her turned now on him" to "She had to admit it." Write an angry dialogue between her good and bad sides.

3. The Prequel - is a story containing events which precede those of an existing work.

The author is currently writing a prequel to ANGELINE, to be called STEPHEN. It will be the story of Stephen's vision and the children's crusade.

Begin a comparative chart about:

Stephen: The Prequel- Before the Betrayal and Angeline: The Sequel - After the Betrayal

4. The Crusader: Write a newspaper report headlined, The Narrow Escape, about the attack on Angeline.

Include the answers to who, what, when, where, why and a brief interview.
