

Chapter Six

1. Vocabulary: Interior Decorating

Design Shows demonstrate how a few extra touches can make a huge improvement in a room. The right choice of words can do the same for a story.

Choose six words. Use them as if you were a decorator describing a fabulous home:

alcoves intricately brilliantly flickering tapestry glazed inlaid curtained

2. The Emir

Character Journal:

Begin a page about Abd'al Haseeb.

- a) Record in point form under these two sub-titles: Physical, Emotional.
- b) Update your other character pages.

3. Culture Clash

Angeline, an innocent Christian girl, is shocked, enraged, ashamed. She had to help Zahra, the concubine, prepare for an intimate encounter with a man to whom she is not married.

Choose to describe the activities through Angeline's and Zahra's point of view.

4. Culture Question Box

One of this book's themes is learning about one another's cultures.

- a) If you are confused or wonder about the cultural traditions or religious beliefs of others put a question in a box provided by your teacher.
- b) Answers: Your teacher will write the questions on the board. The answers may come from: another student; research or a guest speaker.
